BANGER - 100% as described, definitely authentic, original color (new), everything in tact & working (daily on Unix & Linux), arrived a lot earlier than expected, clean, nicely wrapped and securely packaged, excellent communication, and the most advantageous combination of cost & quality. An honest seller here with GREAT finds. Thank you, IMS Store!

IMS was quick to respond when I accidentally placed an order to the wrong address. They cancelled then I placed the order correctly. Most sellers don't respond fast enough or the shipping order has already been sent to Amazon or whoever is actually shipping the item... will buy from again, thank you IMS!

No damage in shipping, 10/10 packaging, and is fully as described. Currently checking on a few parts, but overall awesome value for what you get as the entire chassis is incredibly clean. Hope to be purchasing more from this seller soon.
